

4.2.2 MPhil (Lifelong Learning)

Specific admission requirements

- a) For admission to the MPhil (Lifelong Learning) programme, you must:
- have an appropriate honours degree (with an average of at least 60%) and have been employed in an adult education and training environment for at least two years;
- or*
- have completed another academic-professional study combination equivalent to an honours degree, which Senate deems suitable for admission to this programme, and have been employed in an adult education and training environment for at least two years;
- or*
- have attained a level of competence in adult education, demonstrated through the process of evaluation of prior learning, which Senate deems sufficient for this purpose.
- b) In addition, you must have at least two years of involvement in Lifelong Learning, or other relevant experience that the Faculty deems to be equivalent, before you will be admitted.

Selection

The programme will be offered if a limited number of students can be admitted. The number is determined by the Department of Curriculum Studies.

Closing date for applications

- The closing date for applications is 30 September of the year before admission.
- Applicants apply online on the following webpage: www.sun.ac.za/pgstudies.

Duration and presentation structure of the programme

- The programme is presented over at least two academic years.
- The programme entails a combination of contact and other forms of teaching.
- There are two contact sessions per year, one at the beginning of the year and one in the middle. Each session is a week long.
- For the rest of the year, you do preparatory study, assignments and projects by means of blended learning, online group-work assignments, structured study guides, self-study packages and other forms of directed self-study.

Assessment and examination

- Taught modules:
  - The modules count 33.33% of your final mark.
  - You must complete an assignment for every taught module.
  - You need a minimum of 50% in every module to pass the programme.
- Research thesis:
  - The topic of the thesis falls in the field of adult education.
  - The thesis counts 66.66% of your final mark.
  - You may also submit your thesis for examination in the form of examined or reviewed publishable articles.

Your final mark is calculated as the average for your assignments in all of the taught modules (33.33%), plus your research thesis (66.66%).
