

Calling Law Students

Applications are open for student legal representatives.

The Student Court is calling on all eligible law students to apply as student legal representatives for 2024.

The Student Court is responsible for the resolution of student disputes, disputes between student bodies and SRC constitutional matters which fall within its jurisdiction. It functions as an independent tribunal that applies the Student Constitution impartially and without fear, favour or prejudice. Pursuant to Section 88 of the Student Constitution, the Student Court may appoint designated law students as legal representatives for parties to disputes.

Applicants must have completed at least Law of Civil Procedure 371 OR Law of Civil Procedure 244.
